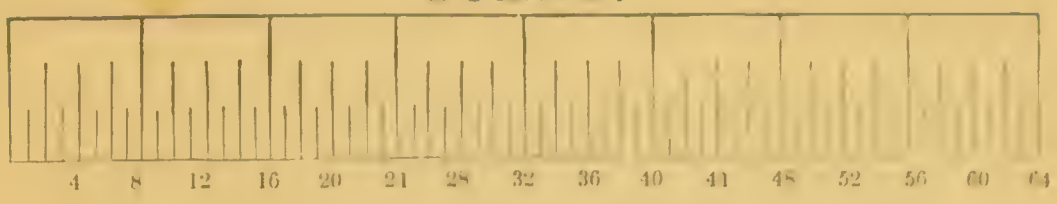
"There be those, wise in their own conceit, and great in their own imagining only, who contemn the gathering of medals, and other things of like kind, as frivolous and unworthy attention; but we have to comfort us this, that we follow, however humbly, in the way wherein great and wise men for ages have gone before us, even from times of remote antiquity."

SCALE.



(Throughout the Catalogue the closing numbers refer to the size by the above scale.)

The history of this piece is worth relating. It first appeared in an addendum to a sale made by Messrs. Bangs, Merwin & Co., to whom it came purporting to be a consignment from J. A. Allen, of Pottsville, Pa. Inquiries were instituted concerning its origin, which failed, however, to elicit any information concerning either the medal or Mr. J. A. Allen. Thus the matter rested till the decease of a certain gentleman in whose collection the dies were found, also several impressions in various metals, together with evidence showing that the dies were recently made in New York city. The dies are now destroyed, together with all the medals struck from them, this alone excepted, which, being unique, and very interesting on account of its singular origin, is by the present owner thought to be very valuable. Weight about 2 oz.; 34.

2033 Bust, WASHINGTON TEMPERANCE SOCIETY; rev. HOUSE OF TEMPERANCE; bronze, very fine, 28.

2034 Washington Cent, small eagle, 1791; splendid proof, a finer one has never been offered for sale, in such condition extremely rare, 20.

2035 Washington Cent, large eagle, 1791; proof impression, rare, 20.

2036 Washington Cent, 1792; obv. military bust, WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT I.; rev. eagle with upraised wings, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA; a magnificent specimen, one of the best known; excessively rare, fully equal to the one that in the McCoy sale brought $90; 23.

2038 Naked-bust Washington Cent, 1792; obv. bust facing right, having very little resemblance to any acknowledged likeness of Washington, the hair being in curls tied with a band, the ends of which fall loosely behind the neck, WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT, 1792; rev. a tall, slender eagle bearing a shield, with talons holding the olive branch and arrows, wings upraised, three stars on each side of the head, the word CENT directly over the head, edge inscribed UNITED STATES OF AMERICA; in brilliant proof condition, and without doubt the finest known, being much superior to that which in the McCoy sale brought $480; concerning the rarity and desirableness of this piece no remarks are necessary, 20.

lines; perfectly uncirculated, portions remaining bright in this condition excessively rare, 21.
